No decision has been made by the Town of Oyster Bay Town Board regarding the proposed purchase of 16 acres for recreation use on Motor Avenue and Heisser Lane, Farmingdale. In the meantime, it was learned the Jack Goor, President of the Farmingdale Youth Council, had submitted a petition of 380 names in favor of the project. Village Trustee Norman Krasnow had not submitted a petition last week as was reported but had sent a telegram stating that he favored the project.

According to a Town spokesman, chances appear good that the proposition will pass, unless something unforeseen happens.

Adopt Treatment Center Blocked At County Sanitarium

Oyster Bay Town Supervisor Michael N. Petito, who opposed establishment of a State Narcotics Treatment Center at the County Hospital for Pulmonary Disease in Old Bethpage from the outset, blocked the proposal this week when he contacted the support of Hempstead Town Supervisor Ralph Caso against the plan. Petito told a cheering crowd of some 500 persons to vote with him in opposing the County Sanitarium as a site. Petito and Caso control a majority of the votes on the County Board of Supervisors and the action will block approval of a lease between the State and the hospital.

Petito stated: "I have said from the outset that the State Narcotics Treatment Centers must not be placed where they will disrupt residential communities. I also oppose placing drug addicted persons in the same facility with persons suffering from pulmonary diseases."

The Oyster Bay Supervisor reiterated his belief that the best place to put a State Treatment Center was at Mitchel Gardens and he added that there was no opposition to the site and the hospital.

Airport Council Changes Name; Becomes Permanent

The Babylon Airport Council, organized in March, 1966 by Long Island businessmen, labor officials, educators, civic leaders and aviators to campaign for establishment of a publicly-owned airport at Republic airfield for general aviation (non-airline) use, has become the "Long Island Aviation Council, Inc., a permanent Island-wide Council which will promote all phases of aviation on Long Island.

The name change signifies the Council's broader scope of interests and activities, according to Chairman Jack Turner. Since the opening in December of Republic Airport in Farmingdale by Flight Safety, Inc., the Council's Board of Directors and general membership has decided to continue the public information program begun last spring, to inform the Long Island community of aviation's importance, and its role in the economy of L.I.

The Council is now studying several areas of aviation development, including: STOL-port facilities (for short take-off & landing aircraft/helicopters) in Nassau-Suffolk, the probable establishment of another major air transport hub; the need for a coordinated system of airports, airlines, airports in Suffolk County to accommodate private and business aircraft; and the future of general aviation to Nassau County. The Council is also examining the role of aviation/aeronautical space in education is also being evaluated.

Chairman of the Council is Jack Turner, aviator writer and Transportation Editor of the L.I. Commercial Review. Vice Chair- man is Arthur Ocean of L. Farmingdale, President of South Shore Metal Products, and former President of the East Farmingdale Businessmen's Association. A ten-member Board of Directors will make policy for the 250-member general council.

The Council's Speakers' Bureau, now under the direction of Frank Opisano (Assistant Dean, State University at Farmingdale), has conducted a very active public information campaign by speaking before service clubs, civic organizations, chambers of commerce, etc. The Council will continue to make presentations to any L.I. organization which requests a speaker.

By coordinating research efforts through the Council, planning leaders and other municipal agencies studying aviation/airport problems are invited to tap the rich know how and experience of Council members, many of whose work actively in the aviation industry. For example, Director James T. Pyle, Executive Director of the Civil Aeronautics Board under President Eisenhower.

The Council plans to issue reports from time to time on specific areas of interest such as sites for new airports, the need for STOL facilities, heliports, etc. In no way will the L.I. Aviation Council become involved in politics or political issues.

Mail Boxes To Be Relocated

The mail boxes located on the east and west side of Main Street by the Farmingdale Post Office will be moved due to many near accidents caused by motorists double parking. This action was taken jointly by the Board of Trustees of The Incorporated Village of Farmingdale and Postmaster Leo Morgan.

Also it will free two five minute parking stalls immediately before the PostOffice. The box will be moved to Prospect Street and the other box will be relocated by the Farmingdale Theatre. For the motorists, traveling north on Main Street, the box in front of the McCourt and Trudden Funeral Home will be moved just south of Village Hall.
Park Group To Begin Tree Planting Program

The Massapequa Park Garden Club is planning a long range project to plant trees on Park Club Drive. The club has a slogan "It costs $1 a branch; 25 cents a twig and 10 cents a leaf." All contributions are welcome.

"Our plans which will go into effect the week of February 10, will not addle one night a week from 8:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. where one or more councilmen will meet the residents at four locations throughout the Town."

The club is planning a long range project to plant trees on Park Club Drive. The club hopes to make the group hopes to make the first planting on Arbor Day, April 21st. Each tree will cost $15 including planting. Those wishing to contribute may mail checks to Mrs. George F. Mott, President, 1233 Lake Shore Drive, Massapequa Park, NY, 11762.

Tuesday morning at 9:30 a.m. The course is being conducted by Mrs. Claire Olsom, a Registered Nurse, and is being held on Tuesday mornings for nine weeks from 9:30 a.m. to 12. The course teaches laymen how to treat themselves and members of their families in an emergency situation when a physician's services may not be available.
Oyster Bay Town’s “Group Activities for Mentally Handicapped Children” will start at 9 a.m. on Friday, February 30, at the Oak Drive School in Plainview, as a result of a program in the state recognized by the State Division for Youth. proposals will be rapped to the Farnam School. Dr. Francis J. Neubauer, program director, recently to the Plainview Central School District and Dr. William L. Steele, Farnam will be present at the program.

Dr. Martin Syden, project co-ordinator said there will be approximately 12 groups of 10 children each, with such disabilities as readable and ed-pooling firm. “Debt consolidation attractive but usually burdensome”.

The Better Business Bureau reported that while one payment of $35 had been made, she learned that no other payments had been sent to her creditors. She now faces the possibility of the loss of her car and home if her now-defunct payments are not made. Arthur Stark, executive vice president of the Better Business Bureau, New York, urges the public to check out any debt consolidation involved with an out-of-state debt consolidation firm. “Debt consolidation for a fee is illegal in New York and New Jersey,” he warns, and states that the Better Business Bureau would recommend to practice the adjustment of credit problems with the Bureau.

Town Supervisor Michael N. Petito presented a bill to the Town Board on the use of New York State rates for snow removal. The supervisor presented the claim that the use of over $2,000 more than what the Town report had it. The claim also noted that the debt-pooler’s claim was lower than the court report stated.

The Better Business Bureau has recommended that all financial problems seek help from recognized financial institutions.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Six months ago I asked community organizations to join the County government in an anti-litter drive to improve the appearance of Nassau County. I named Miss Ethel Heisser, head of the Office of Mobilization for Democracy, as coordinator of the campaign.

With the beginning of the new year, I should like to thank the following organizations from Farmingdale for their support: Farmingdale Civic Association, Kiwanis Club, Farmingdale Youth Council, and the Rotary Club from Plattinville, the Kiwanis Club of Farmingdale has cooperation done much to secure success of the campaign. I told, 227 organizations are following up the anti-litter campaign. The club is dressed to the Office of Mobilization for Democracy. Most of the complaints involve private property, and we have found that a request for cooperation from organizations in the community where the property is located has been most effective.

Editorial

The Turkey Assistance Committee of Farmingdale is growing, the largest group so far met last Monday evening to discuss ways to raise money to send packages to the 680 adopted service men and for their 'Operation Helping Hand' program.

The packages which Farmingdale residents will send to the Vietnamese people is a war-against-a-person kind of thing. The program 'Operation Helping Hand' which the battalion adopted by Farmingdalegiers will make their job so much easier in the future.

Letters and packages are welcomed by the following organizations from Farmingdale:

The Kiwanis Club of Farmingdale has shown its leadership by being the first to lend assistance. The Farmingdale Lions clubs and the P.B. Pallet should follow suit.

More Names of Local Servicemen in Vietnam

Names of more Farmingdale servicemen who are in Vietnam to be added to the list published last week.

Letters and packages are welcomed by the following organizations:

The Farmingdale Civic Association, Kiwanis Club, Farmingdale Youth Council, and the Kiwanis Club of Farmingdale have already received a lot of offers. Getting these packages to the men to turn over to the Vietnamese people is a war-against-a-person kind of thing. The program 'Operation Helping Hand' which the battalion adopted by Farmingdalegiers will make their job so much easier in the future.

Reminded Of New Vaccination Rules
Nassau County Clerk Frank H. Orantes, who processes passport applications, asked that passport applicants requesting visas, become mandatory on January 1, 1967. The form calls for the inclusion of both the health and batch number of the vaccine used to immunize the applicant against smallpox. Yellow fever and other vaccine recipients may use them until they expire. They must then receive the new form. Physicians were asked Orantes to take particular care, since they are the only ones who can supply the required information. The Health Department, which validates the certificates, merely indicates that the immunizing physician is licensed to practice medicine in New York State.

Library Offers Help On Tax Problems
Are you wrapped up in Federal income tax problems? Hempstead Public Library has added library literature available to residents to step through the tax maze with the greatest of ease, according to Library Director Alfred Frey. All reference and circulating materials are available. Your income tax data is simplified, non-technical language all the way to increase your after-tax income. It explains how to handle the medical and dental expense, capital gains principle, local taxes, and a host of approved suggestions, which the Health Department, the state's local taxes, and a host of approved suggestions, which the Health Department, the state's local taxes, and deductibles.

A second book, Your Federal Income Tax is published by the U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service. Every taxpayer should use this book to understand Federal income tax laws. It explains the standards of pay and conditions for men working under the American flag are the highest for any merchant fleet in the world. In addition to these costs, American shipowners are working to expand educational opportunities. The vast wealth of this nation is divided into diversified investment portfolio that utilizes money not needed immediately, said Grunewald. These funds are invested in rental properties, real estate, and other materials to facilitate the presence of the school's clubs together for the students, their families, and the public. The Town will continue its diversified investment portfolio that utilizes money not needed immediately, said Grunewald. These funds are invested in real estate, rental properties, and other materials to facilitate the presence of the school's clubs together for the students, their families, and the public.

Bitter Bits
By Leslie Trumpe
Hempstead High School
Mid-term hits Bitter earlier this week, and so do the happy-go-lucky students. They have found themselves buried deep in piles of books, long forgotten notes, and coffee cups. These things make school work difficult. The end of the school year, and therefore, many classes will soon be ending. This aspect is only one worry of the case. Driver's education class here newly licensed drivers will hit the road, and never again will they see the back of a classroom (among other things). Until now they were considered seniors. It's at this time when the students are doing their final research for the school papers begin to make sense. The senior year is the right time to begin to realize that you are about to graduate.
Charles Todd of Massapequa and Connie Dezego of Farmingdale will be presented with Silver Beaver Awards by the Nassau County Council of the Boy Scouts of America on February 11 at 6 p.m. at the Cloud Casino of Oyster Bay. Seek Single Referendum

The Greater Bar Harbour Trustee Association passed a resolution that they favor a single referendum. For the forthcoming referendum incorporating both the development of the 25 acre park and acquisition and development of the last remaining 11 acres of waterfront property in the Village of Massapequa Park. The Association also went on record that they favored the Village joining in the Oyster Bay recreational concept.
Massapequa High cut out a close one at home Friday against Valley Stream Central in a come-from-behind game played at the loser’s court. The Chiefs overcame the 25-21 halftime deficit to win 30-23. Both teams had played an away game scheduled for 8:30 p.m. The Pequans came within one point with two seconds to play in the 3rd quarter of play. Coach merry Bontemps at the buzzer clinched the thrilling win.

Committee Slates Last Meet Before Recommendations

The Recreation Committee of the Village of Massapequa Park will hold its second public meeting on Wednesday, February 1, at 8:00 p.m. in the Village Hall. The meeting will offer Village residents an opportunity to hear and discuss the latest proposals for development of the 25 acres Massapequa Park and acquisition of 11 acres on Great South Bay. It will be the last public meeting before the Recreation Committee makes its recommendations to the Village Board.

TOB Display At Recreation Show

The Town of Oyster Bay will present a booth-arts-recreation display at the Maritime Recreation Boat Show, February 4 through 7th in the Island Garden, West Hempstead. The display will include movies and slides of the Town’s beaches, parks and recreation activities. The special 40-foot display will feature musical instruments used at the Town’s twelve beaches, three launching ramps, two boat ladders and the four community parks.

In addition to photos and artists’ sketches, a slide and movie presentation compiled by H. William Warner, Jr., supervising manager of the Town’s south shore beaches, will also be offered. There are 160 color slides and about 300 feet of color movies depicting some of the Town’s facilities that will be shown regularly at the show to passing visitors.

Daler Matmen Still Unbeaten

The Farmingdale High School undefeated wrestling team chalked up its tenth straight victory with a 26-18 non-league win over Wantagh last week. The matmen, who have a 9-0, overall and 3-0 league record, also defeated Hicksville during the past week in a league match after coping a holiday tournament over East Meadow, Westbury and Manor. Co-captains Bill Walling and Dave Peters will attempt to lead their team to tenth straight win at Wantagh this Friday.

Chiefs Win Thriller; Dalers, Bisons Not So Lucky

580 people attended the annual Massapequa Mustangs football awards dinner at Carl Haggerty’s, Baldwin Sunday to pay tribute to six league champions in the 16-team football program. Each youngster received a souvenir football and certificate of participation. Members of championship teams also received trophies and emblems. A host of civic and political leaders were among those in attendance including Nassau County Executive Eugene H. Nickerson, Town of Oyster Bay Supervisor Michael N. Jettio, Town Councilmen Angelo Di Bianco and Ralph Marino, Massapequa Park Mayor Ronald Siggerson and School District 23 Board of Education President J. Lewis Alston. New York’s NEW Inspection Law

New York State’s new all-car inspection law will greatly increase the number of inspections to be made. At the beginning of this program, delays in obtaining inspections may be encountered. To avoid any delays or inconvenience, the Department of Motor Vehicles makes these suggestions, based on the schedule at left:

- If your vehicle falls within Groups 3 or 4, it have inspected early as possible. The next time you bring your vehicle in to be serviced may be the most convenient time to have the inspection made.

- If your vehicle falls within Group One, have it inspected early as possible during your scheduled inspection month.

- Remember that for these vehicles, the scheduled month of inspection includes the specific month set forth in the schedule and the month immediately preceding.

- If your vehicle falls within Group Two, have it inspected early as possible in October.

- Remember that except for vehicles in Group Three, your vehicle must be inspected before you may renew your registration next time.
Proclaim 'American History Month'

County Executive Eugene H. Nickerson issued a proclamation designating the month of February as "American History Month" throughout Nassau County.

"From the founding of the United States through almost two centuries of extraordinary growth and accomplishments, there have been many inspiring examples of patriotism and self-sacrifice for the common good of man," said Nickerson in his proclamation. "The lives of our founding fathers and great leaders of the past serve as an inspiration to all of us as we continually strive to preserve the freedom which they so courageously fought for and defended."

Nickerson stressed the important role being carried out in the schools through the conduct of American History classes which, by the use of textbook and discussion, continue to strengthen the concepts of justice and liberty for all.

Youth Boards Seeks Big Brothers, Big Sisters

The Big Brothers, Big Sister Program of the Farmingdale Youth Board is seeking volunteers to assist children in the community who are missing one or both parents. The Youth Board has sponsored the Big Brother, Big Sister Program for the past several years and is hoping to expand its services to more of the youngsters in the community. A volunteer need no previous experience.

Interested men and women are requested to contact Bob Nadel at 361 Main St., Farmingdale or by calling 245-2928. Volunteers will receive orientation and training and will be assigned to a little brother or little sister.

Jewish Center Forms Joint Committee For Building

The appointment of the Farmingdale Jewish Center Journal Committee was announced by Dr. Albert Ginsberg, Committee Chairman. Those named were: Norman Krahnov, hill Rappaport, Joseph Stern, Sidney Stein, Abram Schaeffer, Mrs. Kenneth Rosenfield, Richard Sturts, Murray Wilcox and Cecil Walfi, Herman Banner, Bernard and Stanley Feigenbaum, Arthur Faman & Joe Greenwald.

Dr. Ginsberg indicated funds raised through the Journal this year will go towards the building fund for the center's new facilities.

The Journal will honor Mr. Jacob M. Marcus of Farmingdale, President of Marcus Associates, builders of numerous industrial plants on the island. In connection with the publication of the Journal, a "twilight" cocktail party will be given on June 11th (at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stern, Village Attorney.

Protest Trailer Park Expansion

250 people thronged the Babylon Town Hall last Wednesday to protest an application for a Special Permit to realign and to extend the trailer park on route 110 on the south side of Bredell Street, North Amityville.

A 500 name petition was presented to block the appeal for expansion as well as letters from community and religious organizations and the Amityville Board of Education.

Owners of the trailer park, Frontier Corporation would like to add 25 more sites to the 250 in existence for mobile homes and house trailers. The trailer park is a compound enclosed by a six foot high fence.

Those who objected cited the deprivation of land values and the burden on the school districts. The Babylon Town Board may make a decision on Thursday.

This ad is about money. It may not be for you.

Think your present checking account is the last word in handling your money? We have news for you. The new way, designed to meet the demands and opportunities of today.

We call it Checking Plus.

Checking Plus

Checking Plus is not for everyone. It's only for responsible people, who understand and appreciate its flexibility and convenience.

People who like to keep most of their money invested and growing, and still have funds to draw on, if necessary.

People who want protection from sudden emergencies and the opportunity to get in on unexpected good buys.

People whose income is certain but irregular, such as doctors, lawyers and salesmen.

People who want to establish credit just once, and not have to establish it again each time they take out a loan.

Checking Plus is the new idea in checking accounts recently introduced by First National City Bank. A checking account that gives you real freedom, even to avoiding the embarrassment of accidentally over-drawing your account.

We think Checking Plus is the checking account of the future.

Checking Plus works like any other checking account. You write checks the same way. But you have a standby cash reserve. It gives you, come see us at First National City, the peace of mind never cost so little.

...the only bank your family ever needs

This ad is about money. It may not be for you.

$400-5000

Any time you write a check for more than you have in your account, we automatically take enough money out of your reserve (in multiples of $100) and credit it to your account.

If you don't use any of it, you don't pay a cent. Many people just want the security of knowing it's there.

If you do use part or all of the reserve, you are charged for the portion transferred to your account.

The charge is 1½% per month.

Repay as soon as you want, or take as long as one or two years. If you repay in, say, 10 days, your charge is only 10/30ths of 1½%.

As soon as you repay any part of the reserve, it's ready to use again.

Another plus in Checking Plus is the special Identification Card. It's yours for the asking, and lets you cash your Checking Plus checks at any one of our branches.

If you can appreciate what money in reserve can mean to you, and the freedom and convenience it gives you, come see us at First National City. Any branch in the five boroughs, Nassau or Westchester.

Ask about Checking Plus, the modern checking account with a standby cash reserve.

Peace of mind never cost so little.
